

This Earth Day help Chino Hills State Park and make a difference

California State Parks give us monumental scenery, but these magnificent resources need repairs and maintenance.

Join us on Saturday, April 18 from 8:30 am to 1pm for California State Parks Foundation's 17th Earth Day Construction and Cleanup.

Volunteers are needed at:
Chino Hills State Park
Discovery Center
4500 Carbon Canyon Rd.
Brea, CA 92823

To register to volunteer, visit calparks.org or call 1-888-98-PARKS.

Thank you to our regional sponsors for making this event possible.
