State Park to close Tuesday-Thursdays

By Mariluna Nagiles
Chino Hills State Park will be closed Tuesdays through Thursdays for the next several weeks due to state budget cuts.

The park will be closed from August 30 to September 2, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, and from October 1 to October 7. The park will reopen Monday, October 10.

The closure is due to budget cuts across the state and is a standard practice in lieu of state budget cuts.

On Mondays and Fridays the park is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on weekends from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

In lieu of the budget cuts, the park is working to reduce the number of visitors allowed at any one time. They are also working to reduce the number of staff on duty.

The closures are the result of budget cuts to state parks across California. The closures are expected to continue until the budget is restored.

County looks into hot food trucks

Hot food trucks could become a common sight at private events within San Bernardino County, if the board of supervisors votes to allow them.

The board is considering an ordinance that would allow hot food trucks to operate at public events in the county.

The board is expected to vote on the ordinance next month.

The ordinance would allow hot food trucks to operate at public events in the county. The trucks would be required to meet certain health and safety standards.

The board is also considering a proposal that would allow hot food trucks to operate at public events in the county.

The proposal would allow hot food trucks to operate at public events in the county. The trucks would be required to meet certain health and safety standards.
