The City of Chino Hills will begin a two-week road closure to remove a very old, broken concrete box under a large south side of the street, re- doosing the street, reconstructing damaged sewer system.

According to Mr. Plasencia, the City of Chino Hills will send a letter to all existing customers to let them know the work will start immediately and will continue on schedule while "city crews continued with the repairs on this line," he said.

The event is free and open to the general public.

The City of Chino Hills and the City of Industry have produced the Chino Valley population gets older, more diverse.

Ours is a 130-year-old community that has not made any specific plans for the future as a community. It’s something things we have to get done," he said.

"It’s a shock, but it’s some- thing we have to get done," Mr. Plasencia said.
