

Recovery, Repair and Resolve

With a little rain Chino Hills State Park begins to green up one month post fire.

Yorba Linda puts up K-Rail to stop erosion with the winter rains.

Someone used the fire as an opportunity to dump trash in the State Park.

Commemorating the 10 Year
Anniversary of the November 2008
Freeway Complex Fire.

Olinda Village Fire Station was constructed.

Numerous landslides occurred after the fire even before the rains began.

Neighbors put out fresh food and water for the wildlife to survive.

Lights were brought in to help crews work throughout the night.

Utilities were destroyed in the fire and crews were out promptly to return service.

Brea put out sandbags to direct water runoff from the winter rains.

Carbon Canyon comes together through the Fire Safe Council.

Non-native plants were removed and now creek restoration is underway.

This turkey vulture had ample meals with the numerous dead animals.

Olinda Village now has a Community Emergency Response Team storage unit.

New utility poles were trucked in a few days after the fire.

The cell phone receiver site was destroyed in the fire.